HAPPY EASTER

On behalf of Fr. Roy Kiggins, Fr. Michael Merritt, the staff of St. Francis and St. Clare Parish and myself, I wish you all a Happy Easter. I would like to thank all those who have helped to prepare for Easter with a fruitful Lenten season. Fr. Michael Merritt organized a Lenten series on Wednesday's during Lent that went very well and was well attended. Fr. Michael also organized a series of Holy Hours with Adoration on Saturdays after the morning Mass accompanied by confessions. The Holy Hours were run by various committees and groups in the parish. The environment at both churches was in keeping with the readings of the season.

The Living Stations of the Cross, done by the Confirmation students was just incredible. Many thanks to Pam Kane for her patience and organizational skills in putting it together. The Palm Sunday celebrations were beautifully and prayerfully done.

As I write this article, I have not yet participated in the Holy Week liturgies, yet I know of all the preparation that went into them. Fr. Michael celebrated his first Easter Vigil as a priest. I still remember the first Easter Vigil that I celebrated. It was a memorable experience. Carrying the Easter Candle into a darkened church and watching congregations light one by one is a powerful symbol of how the light of Christ spreads. The Easter Candles were donated by the Sandersons at St. Patrick's and by the Folk family in memory of Tristan at St. Mary's

The Easter season continues with the celebration of Divine Mercy next Sunday at a special celebration. The bishop will be coming to our parish this week for the celebration of Confirmation. Lent and Easter are not complete without the celebration of Pentecost. Many thanks to all those who have helped and participated in all of our liturgies and to all those who will prepare and participate in the upcoming liturgies of Easter and Pentecost.

Fr. Jim

EUCCHARIST QUOTES

"The Eucharist is the sacrament of cosmic remembrance: it is indeed a restoration of love as the very life of the world." – Alexander Schmemmann, For the Life of the World: Sacraments and Orthodoxy

On Friday, 3/23 the Confirmation Classes of St. Francis & St. Clare presented a silhouette version of the Stations of the Cross. This was a powerful prayer that allowed the teens who acted and the audience to actually experience the Passion of our Lord. On behalf of the parish we extend a huge "Thank you" to these students of our confirmation classes: Michael Bogart, Zack Merkley, Brian Oddi, Alexandra Oddi, Alyssa Marley, Megan Marley, Jamie Bruning, Ryleigh Bruning, Joey Anderson, Bridget Miller, Gretchen Perrine, Evan Olschewske, Sam Lorenzetti, Nick Corsner, Gino Porretta, Troy Kabat, Ryan Furletti and parent Amylyn Marley. A special thanks goes to the parents who willingly helped get the teens to chaotic rehearsals.

Encounter the Risen Christ We prayed, fasted and gave alms – and now we celebrate Easter joy! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl ends as we encounter our Risen Lord. We reflect on our brothers and sisters we have walked with, and we commit to bringing Easter joy to each person we meet in our daily lives Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl.

Donations for Operation Rice Bowl may be placed in the marked containers at the church entrances or at the altar on Palm Sunday, during Holy Week, and on Easter. Please make any checks payable to St. Francis & St. Clare Parish with CRS in the memo section.
Thank you for your participation – from the Social Ministry Committee
